

Uta Heinecke

Studio Vienna: Hainburger Str. 44/3, 1030 Wien, Austria, Europe
Studio Hungary: Petőfi S. u. 8, 9085 Pázmándfalu, Hungary, Europe
Phone: +43 699 1909 5177
Website: www.utaheinecke.at
Email: mail@utaheinecke.at

Uta Heinecke was born in 1973 in Haldensleben, East Germany. Fleeing East Germany in 1984, Uta Heinecke spent four years living in Budapest.. After she finished secondary school in Hamburg, Germany, she moved to Austria. She studied painting and graphic arts at the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts, master school of Gunter Damisch.

Uta Heinecke is member of the artist group MAMŰ, Budapest and the association Künstlerhaus Wien. She founded and operates the Association i.Ku, Association of Interdisciplinary and International Cultural Exchange, and since 2007, the gallery "Kellergalerie art.ig" in Vienna.

She lives as a professional painter, printmaker and curator in Vienna and Pázmándfalu (Hungary).

Scholarships and Symposia (selection, ^(C) catalogue)

- 2017 Art in Nature, Abiko, Japan ^(K);
ArtCamp 2017, International Symposia, Erdőszőlő, Hungary;
- 2016 Fresh Winds, Garður, Iceland ^(C);
Symposia in Trzebieszowice, Poland;
Paliano, Rome (Scholarship from the Lower Austria government);
Open Arts Festival, Busan, South Korea;
- 2015 III. International Biennial Yalova, Turkey ^(C);
- 2014 Fresh Winds, Garður, Iceland ^(C);
University of Yalova, Turkey ^(C);
- 2013 II. International Biennial Yalova, Turkey ^(C)
- 2011-12 Painting-Symposia, Artists House Kecskemét, Hungary;
- 2010 University of Jászberény, Hungary;
I. International Biennial Yalova, Turkey ^(C);
- 2009 Symposia Zabola, Transylvania, Romania;
- 2006-15 International Symposia ArtCamp Erdőszőlő, Hungary ^(C);
- 2006 Lithography-Scholarship of Gallery Miskolc, Hungary;
- 1993-96 Artist Camps of the Hungarian Academy of Fine Arts in Makó and Tihany, Hungary;
Kunsthaus Horn, Lower Austria;
- 1992-96 Performance festivals in Germany, Hungary and Romania;
- 1992 Scholarship in the Graphic studios in Miskolc, Hungary

1991-Now Several solo and group exhibitions in Galleries, Museums and Art Fairs in Austria, France, Germany, Hungary, Poland, Iceland, Turkey, Korea, Romania, Belgium, The Netherlands.